

We, members of the graduating class of '64, being of sound body and mind, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking all prior wills
by us at any time made.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Jim Allison, will to next year's Craftsman photographer, my ability to produce fabulous pictures in a broom closet (our darkroom), while simultaneously fighting Mrs. Teeter, Mr. Muller, Mr. Hanson, and the janitors.

Karen Anderson, will to Marge Keymes, all my tardiness and absences.

Sally Anderson, will to Holly Petroske, my bottle of peroxide.

Tom Aschoff, will to my brother, my wonderful Chemistry book.

Maryanne Aykens, will to any brave junior, my great devotion to the Beatles, and the will to carry on the cause.

Bonnie Bassett, will to Charlene Johnson, my ability to eat in Mr.-----'s class behind a newspaper and not get caught.

Lorna Batsell, will to any fortunate junior, all the happiness and fun I had at Vocational and all my D's.

Sally Beauchane, will to Leigh Schmidt, all the fun I had in the Voc-ettes.

Mary Benoit, will my pep pills to the cheerleaders to help our winning team.

Tony Bender, will to Pat Bogucki, my great speed.

Pat Birge, will to Pat Fuss, a good senior year and my warm seat in the air-conditioned lunchroom.

Judy Blasiak, will to any interested junior, all the fun and excitement that the senior year holds for anyone willing to attempt it.

Diane Bodeman, will to any junior, my hall-roving permit that enables me at any time before 8:15 to walk up and down the halls, if someone is crazy enough to want it.

Eddie Boehler, will to Fred Rogers, all my football experience and aches and pains.

Wayne Boike, will to Vocational, my athletic lock--if they can find it!

Bob Borchardt, will to Jim Schwartzrock, my ability to sleep in Mr. Lindman's first row during Modern Problems.

Jim Borka, will to Bev Pacquette, my straight-edged razor.

Jerry Boursell, will to Dean Lindquist, all my seventh hours.

Jackie Bowers, will to any junior my different colors of hair if you have the nerve to try them!

Sandy Breckon, will to Nancy Chmielski, all my old stenography notebooks and the frustrations that went with them.

John Bren, will to Stan Hulse, all my luck with Mr. Peyla. (He'll need it!)

Dave Bross, will to Dick Rodriguez, my lucky Number 13 football jersey.

Alice Brown, will to Mr. Fitchette, all my free time during his sixth period class.

Gary Carlson, will to Bill DeLine, all of my brownie points with Mr. Cady.

Sherry Caple, will to Barbara Augustine a bottle of cough syrup.

Larry Carlson, will to Gary Gay, the privilege of wrestling 103 for Mr. Cady.

Cassius Clay, will my cheat sheet, to the nearest Army Recruiting station.

Reid Coleman, will to Dave Johnson, my ability with coins.

Al Contreras, will to John Larson, some brains.

Judy Crone, will to all juniors of the Needle Arts Department, the monogramming machine.

Ray Dabrowski, will to Cindy Thunstrom, all my passes to walk the halls, go to the boiler room, and to Charley's.

Gary Delzer, will to any junior, my ability.

Dick Dulian, will to Gale Randolph, my old pair of elevator shoes.

Fred Draper, will to Lon Hurley, all the bad tubes in Radio-TV shop 309.

Jean Dubay, will to any junior who wants to really learn something, an excellent teacher, Mr. Janasz.

Judith Duncan, will to any Needle Arts junior, my T-square in Mr. Arent's patternmaking class.

Shirley Eaton, will to Mike Dodge, my Baebee and fabulous grades.

Judy Ebert, will to Jackie Daun, my sympathy if she happens to be in a certain teacher's class on fourth floor.

Jennice Eckland, will to Leigh Schmidt, the deck of cards we used in Mr. Davis's back room.

PRETTIEST EYES
Kathy Hess and Jerry King

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

John Edlefsen, will to Duff Hoffman, the hole in my ear.

Billy Sol Estes, will my wheat fields, to Nikita Krushchev.

Mary Kay Felt, will to Sharyl Reveling, all the fun loving teachers at Vocational High.

Russ Fennert, will to Pete Berg, my many years of experience in Auto Shop with Mr. Hinshaw.

Sue Fisher, will to Lorraine Crotty, the use of materials in pattern making in hopes that it will help her in her future.

Sandy Fure, will to Judy Landborg, my tattletale grey cosmetology uniform.

Len Gallus, will to Barb Isam the fifth floor swimming pool and a sharp bikini to match.

Rick Gedell, will to Andy Peterson my "holy" swimming trunks for next year.

Virginia Cibbs, will to any junior girl who is going with a guy in the service my ability to wait and wait and wait.

Richard Grave, will to Ron Fisher all my homework from Mr. Janasz's class.

Cathy Grimes, will to any junior my fantastic ability to sit quietly and be attentive in Mr. Janasz's Modern Problems.

Gary Greene, will to Carol Erickson and Sharon Allford all of Mr. Salwasser's ties.

Jean Gould, will to my sister Florence all the fun and more that I had in my senior year.

Carol Harding, will to any junior who wears glasses, my contact lenses and blood shot eyes.

Jackie Hetchler, will to Paulette Chelberg, my needle and thimble and all the crazy activities in your senior year, and most of all my lost card board on Snow Day.

Charlotte Hart, will to Leigh Schmitt, the great luck of having my seat in Mrs. Bryne's English class. Good Luck!

Dan Hall, will to any junior, my ability to sleep in class.

Rose Hanson, will to any junior Cosmetology girl the use of my sad looking cosmetology book.

Jeanne Hart, will to any junior, my seat in Mr. Janasz's Modern Problems class. Gladly!

Joel Harth, will to any junior, my good intentions when I get my new motorcycle.

George Hecker, will to Wayne Larson Vocational night school, Steve, and Mrs. Mac.

Nick Heger, will to Andy Peterson my tooth which I lost on the football field if he can stumble across it.

Geraldine Hillstrom, will to Bette Hillstrom my fifth floor activities.

Jimmy Hoffa, will my place in the Senate Sub-committee room to Bobby Kennedy.

Walter Hoffman, will to Tom Koehler my old locker, the stage (if he can cart it away), and any ability I might have in the art of snowing people.

Judy Haskins, will to Kathy Brecht all the sharp boys if she can find them.

Mavis Holmes, will to Linda Gilmake my ability to get brownie points and good marks from Mrs. Erickson.

Charlzetta Irwin, will to Ruth Brown my outstanding attendance card so she can look at it every time she is absent.

Georgia Isam, will to Barbara Isam all the post-grads who follow her in the halls.

Gloria Iskierka, will to any of the new cheerleaders my uniform and all the fun and excitement that goes along with it.

Cherry Iverson, will to Rory Jones my needle and thread.

Bill Japp, will to Mr. Voss my beautiful, long, talented hair.

Shirley Jaworski, will to Kathy Brecht all the fun and excitement of being a Big Senior.

Betty Johnson, will Sherry Dufault my saddle shoes.

Carol Johnson, will to Pat Kubinski my seat in Mr. Jackson's Physics class and the power to half way understand what is being studied in the class.

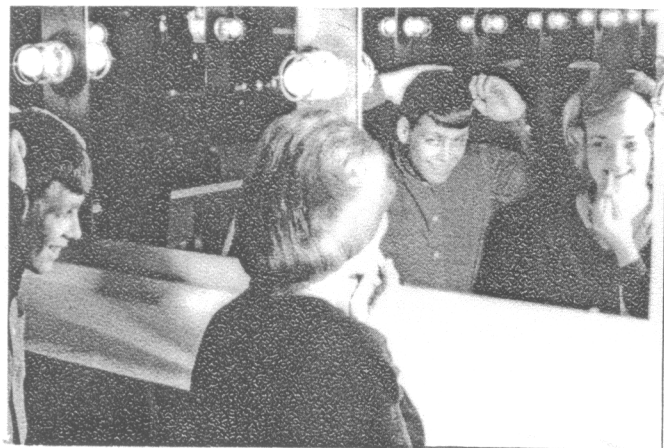

Dorothy Johnson, will to any junior my front row seat in Mr. Lindman's class. I also will my rain bonnet to catch the rain that Mr. Lindman supplies.

Pat Johnson, will my used shorthand notebooks to a worthy junior who can find room between the lines.

Gary Johnson, will to Mike Dodge my precious Elsie Wardrobe including my nylons and dancing slippers for next year's choir program.

PEPPIEST AND MOST ATHLETIC
Crystal Kilpatrick and Nick Heger

PRETTIEST AND HANDSOMEST
Jennifer Person and Mike Kolodjski

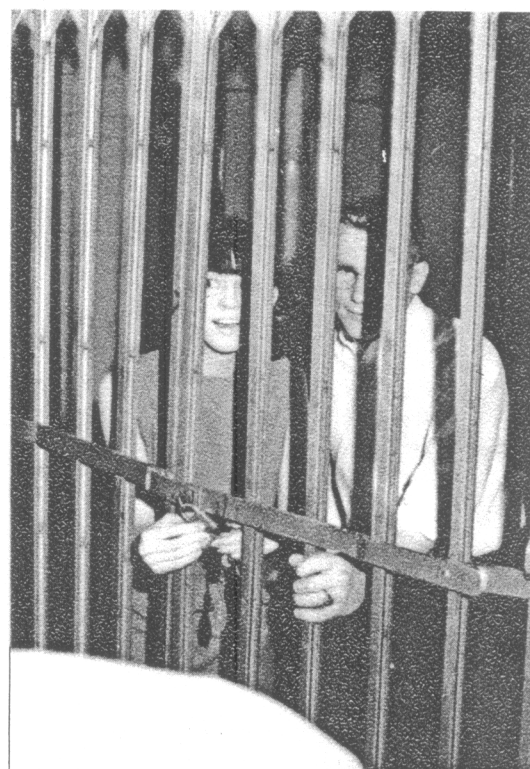

MOST ENCHANTING SMILE
Sally Anderson and Dick Ruble

BIGGEST FLIRT AND BEST LINE
Janice Nelson and Bob Marshall

TYPICAL VOCATIONALITES
Gloria Iskerkia and Steve Valdez

MOST MISCHIEVOUS
Mary Benoit and Rusty Peterson

TALKATIVE

Carol Stevens and Denny Forstrom

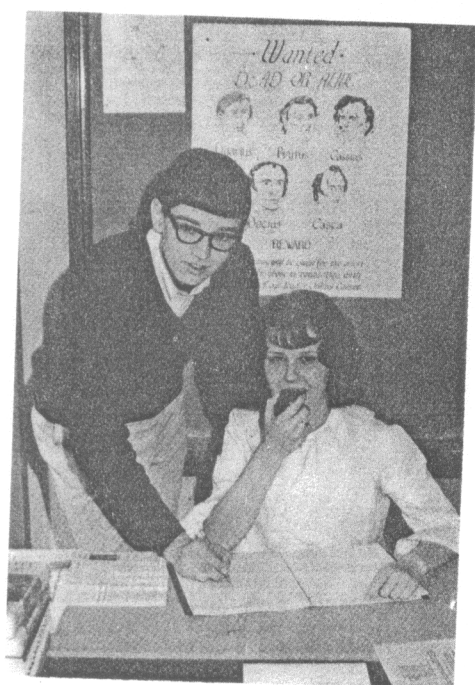

FRIENDLIEST

Dave Brass and Carol Harding

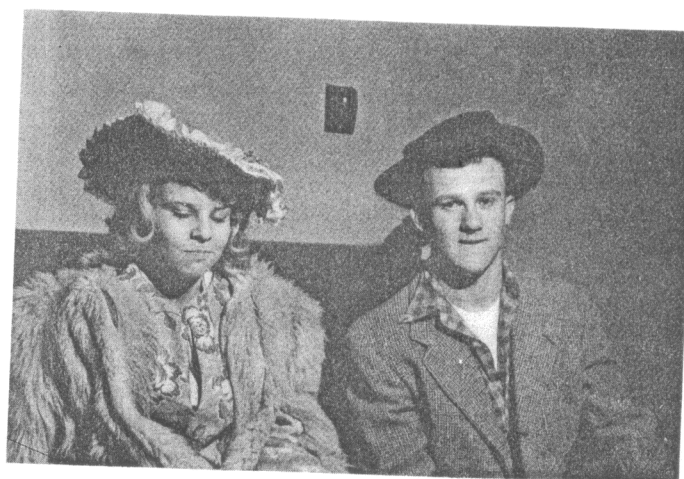

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Wally Hoffman and Marikaye Zebava

APPLEPOLISHER

Cathy Lund and Bob Sothern

BEST DRESSED

Diane Vincent and Doug Moschogianis

BEST DANCERS
Charlzetta Irwin and Walter Newsom

MOST POISED
Sue Ryan and Victor Iwanin

CUTEST COUPLE
Bonnie Bassett and John Bren

MOST SERVICE
Evelyn Klaus and Jim Allison

SHYEST
Shirley Robarge and Ed Boehler

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Janet Johnson, will to Mike Sapa my books and teachers and my locker.

Tom Johnson, will to any junior my ability to say the wrong thing at the right time in Mr. Jackson's class.

Jerry King, will to Toni Frank Miss Huntoon.

John Kaczmarek, will to Ron Hendren my work space in upholstery and the ability to keep it occupied without doing any work.

George Kerber, will to Ron Fisher my inability to iron shirt pleats.

Robert Kennedy, will to Jimmy Hoffa, Melvin Belli—a good lawyer.

Larry Kirberger, will to Tom Koehler everything he doesn't want, and as an extra I'll throw in Mr. you name it.

Chris Kilpartick, will to Bette Hillstrom my ability to aggravate Mrs. Neprude.

Mike Kolodjski, will to Dennis Sunde a front door station to check out the sophomore girls as they come in.

Roger Kortz, will to any junior who lives on the north side all the police that gave me about 1p repair tickets on burned out lightbulbs and loud mufflers.

John Kutney, will to Tony Kutney all the homework I had in my last year here.

Jack Lavigne, will to Dennis Sunday, my great ability of breaking glass in the light tables down in the offset printing department and luck in Mr. Voss's chemistry class.

Dean Lawrence, will to Alan Dahl, my super colossal skating ability and my cheap skates.

Cheryl Leach, will to any junior sewer, my silver threads and golden needles.

Phyllis Lefebvre, will to Rose Bank my ability to dodge the rain drops and being weighed down by snow drops when the wind is blowing.

Ken Lund, will to Steve Hughes, my state championship tennis serving form.

Mike Lunderborg, will to Alan King, all the greycat's 11¼ inches of greasy hair.

Doretta Martfeld, will to any junior with more than ten fingers, my typing ability.

Janice Mahon, will to any junior, my "T" square from Mr. Arent's patternmaking class.

Pam Maravelas, will to any junior, my ability to write void sales checks without Mrs. Brunsberg finding out.

Ted Martin, will to Mr. Chamber's biology class, my brain.

Bob Marshall, will to Fred Rodgers my great speed and ability to get out of the way of the pulling guard.

Greg McDaniels, will to Leigh Schmidt, all rights to the Autograph Room for 1964-65.

Robin McKibbin, will to Amy Monseth, my reserved seat in Mrs. Dwyer's office.

Neil McMillin, will to Nick Bizusky, all of my used drafting materials.

MOST TALENTED

Kathy Pendergast and Dick Saba

Susanne Miller, will to Diane Mayville, my books and troubles in cooking class.

Lillian Miskowicz, will to Cathy Siedlicki, my pocket dictionary for use in Mrs. Byrne's senior English class.

Rosemary Misho, will to Linda Zacharias my ability to run over to the Leamington Hotel without getting caught.

Ralph Morgan, will to Mr. McGimpsey, my pull with the people upstairs.

Bill Myers, will to Gary VanKempen, my ability to keep my mouth shut.

Gale Nelson, will to Mary Novitsky, my books, teachers, and lockers.

Alfred E. Newman will to quit school. (Funny?)

Sam Nicholson, will to any junior band member, my tuba—on the condition that he plays it as hard as I do.

Janice Nielson, will to Mr. Greenwood and Mr. Davis, one pigtail apiece.

Karen Niemela, will to Sandy Enger, all my seventh hours and many, many more.

Richard Nixon, will to Governor Wallace, my forthcoming nomination.

Angeline Novak, will to Kathy Yurich, my ability to get "brownie" points.

Mike Nordstrom, will to any junior, my front row seat in Janasz's class, if he has nerve enough to sit there.

Frank Novitsky, will to Mary Ann Novitsky, my seat in Mr. Jackson's physics class and cram sheets to match.

Dorian Olivera, will the dust on my books to anyone who dares remove it, and see what lies therein.

Carol Ostrowski will to Wayne Ostrowski, my good looking brother, the fifth floor hall! Watch out for Mr. McGimpsey.

John Ohman will to Underhill my beat out trumpet.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

BEST ALIBIERS

Mavis Holmes and Craig Willey

Judy Olson will to Barb Morris all of my diets and Mr. Greenwood's magazine cartoons.

Sharyl Olson will to some lucky junior my ability for getting in trouble in Mr. Janasz's room.

June Opsal will to any junior girl who gets in Mr. Turner's drama class the part of Mrs. Santa Claus in the Christmas program.

Jennifer Person, will to the new captain, Toni Frank, my impatience with "goof-off" cheerleaders.

Ray Pertinen, will to Joan Heltemes, my Beatle haircut, of which she is so jealous.

Russ Peterson, will to Jerry Loftus, a reducing machine.

Wayne Peterson, will to Max Kroger, my $5.00 bet with Mr. Lindman.

Sandra Pettis, will to Alonda Pettis, my seat in Modern Problems class.

Ron Pope, will to Denny Thirsen, my choice '55 Oldsmobile, so he can add it to his fine collection of beautiful cars.

Penny E. Peterson, will to my sister, Andrea, my steno teacher, Miss Robertson. She seems to like us Peterson girls.

Virginia Ralston, will to Jerry Brown my ability to obtain brownie points and high grades.

Gloria Reid, will to Sandy Bona my marked up folder to use next year, even though I'm coming back.

Tom Reynolds, will to anyone in Cabinet Making two swell teachers.

Shirley Robarge, will to Mary Spiczka my position as attendance clerk in Mr. Fiedler's homeroom, alias Grand Central Station.

Milton Rosen, will my back-row parking place in a drive-in movie to Mulford Q. Sibley.

Dick Ruble, will to Fred Rodgers the "gust" he will need to take over the breast-stroke on the swimming team for next year.

Sue Ryan, will to a junior in cosmetology my lost combs and brushes if they can find them.

Richard Saba, will to the Junior Commercial Art Class Mr. Greenwood's sour sponges.

Gary Saffell, will to Gary Yates, Elsie's gang.

Elaine Scherfenberg, will to any junior my leadership in the Bullwinkle Club and my nickname, Ringo Starr.

John Schmidt, will to Neil Lofstrand my lack of ability.

Pat Schulte, will to any junior girl who is fortunate enough to have Drama, my stale play reports. She'll sure need them.

Jon Seher, will to the junior class my ability to fall asleep in class anytime that that I see fit.

Gail Shipshock, will to Mrs. Teeter my neat, clean, and well kept requisition book so that she can pawn it off on some unsuspecting junior who has the ability to decode it.

Gary Skay, will to Don Franczak all my luck in machine shop.

Ron Skwarek, will to Al Dahl the right to suck on an "All Day Holloway Sucker" in his classes. Slop!

Roger Smith, will my name, Charlie Brown, to any junior who is crazy enough to take it.

Doug Sommers, will to Jim Gitchel my seat in Mr. Jackson's Physics class.

Bob Sothem, will my well-used cowbell and my worn out bench to someone who is dippy enough to attend every game with hopes of being on the winning side.

Richard Starkey, (alias Ringo Starr), will my long tresses to "Salty" John Voss.

BEST PHYSIQUE AND FIGURE
Art Grell and Diane Schuman

Alan Stein, will to Ron Fisher, my great skill as a tennis player.

Ken Stenen, will to Steve Hughes. my little black book that's really blue -- he needs it.

Carol Stevens, will to Cherry Reinking, my uncontrollable gift of gab.

Ron Stevens, will to Jerry Loftus -- I will just leave.

Sandy Stevens, will to any junior, my nickname "Crooked Leg", if he can stand with it.

Edward Stanley, will to any junior, my quiet disposition and the title of "Can't-er".

Carole Suchla, will to Sue Suchla, all the good times I had in my senior year.

Mrs. Teeter, will three inches of my height to Mr. Clarence Booth.

Bob Tomaszewski, will to Jared Swanson, Sam's car.

Shirley Tullgren, will to Vicki Clausen, my squirt gun to use in Mr. Sween's class.

Chuck Tyler, will to any junior with any sense, all the vectors, foot-pounds in Mr. Jackson's physics class.

Clint Tucker, will to Bill Pope, my front row seat in Chet Janasz' room along with a full supply of Marine Corps decals for his windows.

Kathy Vichorek, will to Mary Fransark, my seat in Miss Robertson's business correspondence class.

Dorothy Vessey, will to any junior, my basement, third, and fourth floor lockers.

Herbert Vitullo, will to Albert Miles, my position on Mr. Fiedler's baseball team.

Betty Vogle, will to Maxine Kroger, my senior Modern Problems class and hope she does better than I did.

Fred Walch, will to Tom Hansen, all my last years broken hockey sticks.

Phyllis Webber, will to Karen Holland, all the good looking boys in this school.

Mary Wirth, will to Joan Heltemes, my chair in front of Mr. Janasz at the Tuesday movies.

Joe Wryk, will to Dave Krueger, my physics answer book for Mr. Jackson's class.

Larry Warren, will to Chris Schardin, my seat in the cafe before school.

Dolores Ward, will to Cindy Hemmingsen, all the fun of being a senior, and my famous basement locker.

Larry Wines will to Paul Van Slyke my ability to get straight A's in class while having lunch at Charlies, to get a full hours sleep while waiting for McGimpsey, a drinking pass to the boiler room, and a pill thats guaranteed to get you sick at any time of the day in only two short minutes, My last item I will to you is a rag doll with the cute little innocent face of Mr. Lindman.

Eileen Wentzel will to Mike Franz the fun of your senior year. He will know what I mean.

Carol Whited will to every junior the will to finish school and the will to work hard.

Janice Zastrov will to Dean Lindquist my poor grades.

Morris Zemlicka will to Tim Aschoff my chair in Mr. Voss's, so he can sleep through his lectures.